Eisenhower Society Holds Member Appreciation Reception

The Dwight D. Eisenhower Society sponsored its annual Member Appreciation Reception at the Gettysburg Fire Hall on March 29. After enjoying fruit, cheese and desserts donated by the Dobbin House Tavern, and wine and Sangria donated by Duane and Linda Williams and Bob and Ruthmary McIlhenny, fireman and history teacher Wesley Heyser presented a short Powerpoint about the “General Ike” fire truck. Then guests had the opportunity to tour the fire museum and equipment bay. We thank Ken and Sally Weiler for their sponsorship as well.

Carolyn and Nick Ivanoff enjoyed the fire museum as part of the Eisenhower Society Member Appreciation Reception.
